

Wilderness EMT Class

Class Topics

- Wilderness treatment for injuries, including improvised splints, sleds, and litters;
- Effects of environmental stress, such as heat, cold, altitude, and sun exposure;
- Biological hazards, such as contaminated water, insects, venomous snakes, plants, and marine life;
- Medical problems in the wilderness;
- Wilderness evacuation and survival;
- Mapping and GPS usage;
- Realistic, role-playing wilderness scenarios.

Class Information

- A 40 Hour class, CE Provided
- Class to be held on Saturdays 8am-3pm
- Beginning May 21 and ending June 25, 2005
- Classroom at the Williamsburg Township Emergency Services facility at 915 West Main Street, Williamsburg, OH.
- Cost is $385 per person and includes Wilderness Emergency Care textbook
- Call Dana Smith at 513-724-5277 or email at Dana@Safetyllc.com for info

You must be an EMT-B, EMT-I or EMT-P to complete this course. 40 Hours of CE will be awarded upon completion of the course. Appropriate outdoor wear will be required.

Hands On Outdoor Training
Utilizing Scenic Eastfork State Park

Public Safety Instructors, LLC
513-724-5277 www.SafetyLLC.com