

Wilderness First Aid

Class Topics

- Wilderness treatment for injuries, including improvised splints, sleds, and litters;
- Effects of environmental stress, such as heat, cold, altitude, and sun exposure;
- Biological hazards, such as contaminated water, insects, venomous snakes, plants, and marine life;
- Medical problems in the wilderness;
- Wilderness evacuation and survival;
- Realistic, role-playing wilderness scenarios.

Class Information

- A 16 Hour class, CE Provided
- Class to be held on Saturdays from 8am to Noon May 21, 2005 to June 25, 2005
- Location is Williamsburg Township Emergency Services. 915 West Main St, Williamsburg, Ohio
- Cost is $120 per person and includes Wilderness Emergency Care textbook
- Call Dana Smith at 513-724-5277 or email at Dana@SafetyLLC.com for info

An ASHI course completion card will be issued upon completion of class. This course concurrent with Wilderness EMT class. EMT not required. Appropriate outdoor wear will be required.

Hands On Outdoor Training
Utilizing Scenic Eastfork State Park

Public Safety Instructors, LLC
513-724-5277 www.SafetyLLC.com